Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. Hosting SheRoes of the 5th District

San Bernardino, CA. - San Bernardino County 5th District Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. is happy to announce that in honor of Women's History Month, he will be honoring phenomenal unsung women at his upcoming virtual event "SheRoes of the 5th District" on March 18th at 6pm. The women were selected from throughout the community for their accomplishments in their respective fields and for their dedication to improving the lives of others. These are the 2021 SheRoes recipients of the 5th:

- Farah Mohamed of Rialto, Founder of Smile America Abdi Foundation
- Kenesha Boyd of San Bernardino, Co-founder of the VRP
- Joyce Washington of Fontana, Retiree and Community Leader
- Amanda Maldonado-Arroyo of San Bernardino, Branch Manager at Wells Fargo and Community Activist
- Angela McClain of Bloomington, Founder of The Olive Branch Development & Empowerment Services
- Nellie Cortez of Colton, Retiree and Long-time Community Activist

"The women who were selected for this recognition are selfless community advocates who inspire us every day and work tirelessly to improve the lives of those in our community. It is an honor to recognize them for their commitment and leadership." – Supervisor Baca, Jr.

This event will be broadcasted via Facebook Live @supervisorbacajr and YouTube Live at <https://tinyurl.com/bacajr>. Please visit <https://fb.me/e/CwhJG3aL> to RSVP.
