

News Release

For Immediate Release

Joe Baca, Jr.

CONTACT: Amanda Fakhoury

Communications Advisor

Amanda.Fakhoury@bos.sbcounty.gov

Supervisor, Fifth District

June 14th, 2022

Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. Hosted A Street Renaming Ceremony in Honor of Rialto Music Pioneers, J.J. Fad

San Bernardino, CA.- Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. hosted a street renaming ceremony at the San Bernardino County Government Chambers on June 11th, 2022, in honor of the Rialto music pioneers, J.J. Fad. The public was invited to join in on the celebration and a large outpour of local supporters, family and friends of the group, and artists attended the ceremony. Jesse Duran from KOLA-FM emceed the ceremony. J.J. FAD, the locally grown female artist group performed their hit song, "Supersonic" for the crowd. A street has been renamed "J.J. Fad Way" in honor of their support to the community throughout their rise of fame. The street name has already been updated and can be found on Cactus Ave. in the unincorporated area of Rialto, California.

"I am so excited to get a street in the Rialto area, where the music group JJ Fad were raised, to be renamed in their honor! The street is called J.J. Fad Way and is named after the group who always supported their city no matter how famous and busy they got. I would like to thank all who came out, I would like to thank Jesse Duran for emceeding the event, and I would also like to thank the members of World Class Wreckin' Cru and Arabian Prince for coming out and showing support to our girls and our city!" -Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr.