Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. Hosts Online Event in Honor of Hispanic Heritage Month

San Bernardino, CA.- In Honor of Hispanic Heritage month which begins September 15th until October 15th, Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. will be hosting a virtual event to spotlight all the wonderful Hispanic people in our community. In honor of this year's national theme "Unidos: Inclusivity for a Stronger Nation," Supervisor Baca, Jr. will be recognizing the contributions, influence, and history, culture and achievements Hispanic people have not only made in the Country, but specifically in the Fifth District.

"Our County is home to one of the largest groups of Hispanic people in the nation. The sacrifices, hard work, and dedication they have put into making our county a stronger place is important to recognize and share to the community. Stay tuned to our social media pages as we celebrate with weekly Hispanic leaders, workers, businesses, and students throughout our Fifth District. Happy National Hispanic Heritage Month! -Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr.
